It is August 1, 1867. You are Al Colvin, a civilian hay cutting contractor. Your crew is working around 2-1/2 miles from Fort Smith, Wyoming. You spot some of Red Cloud's band getting ready to attack and help to direct the defense of your party. This was known as the "Hayfield Fight".

Stage Procedure:

Pistols holstered with (5) rounds each, hammer down on an empty chamber. Rifle loaded with (9) rounds, action closed, hammer down on an empty chamber, to be held at Cowboy Port Arms. Rifle reloads may be staged on table. Shotgun staged open and empty on table in the right bay.

Starting position:

Standing behind the table in the left bay with your Rifle held at Cowboy Port Arms. When the Shooter is ready say the line "Here they come Boys".

At the Beep,

With your Rifle triple tap the Rifle targets in any direction. Reload (3) rounds and sweep the Rifle targets in any direction. Make Rifle safe and re-stage on table. Move to center bay. With your Pistols double tap all targets starting on the right or left target. Holster and move to left bay. Retrieve your Shotgun and shoot the Knockdowns in any direction until down. Make Shotgun safe and proceed to the unloading table.

Targets required: (3) Cowboys, (2) Circles, (2) Knockdowns
